

Global Village School Newsletter

Issue Number 2

Monday 10th April

VERY WELCOME VISITORS...

On Wednesday of last week, we had a group of 50 children from Lanta Noi visit our school.

The children were attending a summer camp aimed at helping them to improve their English. A part of their learning was to visit a school where they would have to listen to English teachers giving them instructions. They participated in some fun activities with the children from Octopus and Turtle classes.

This was followed by some snacks and drinks, which were massively popular! The children from Lanta Noi even did their own washing up!!! They can definitely come again.

The children from both schools really enjoyed the afternoon and everyone agrees the visit was a massive success. Let us hope we can repeat it in the not too distant future.

Important Dates

Wednesday 12th April

Sports Day and BBQ at Casuarina Park

Wednesday 12th April

End of school term

Tuesday 18th April

School term starts

Monday 1st May

School closed

Friday 5th May

School closed

Wednesday 10th May

School closed

...AND NOT SO WELCOME VISITORS

There have been some suspected cases of head lice in the school recently. Please ensure you check your child's hair regularly and treat if necessary.

WE WENT IN SEARCH OF TREASURE

On Friday, Octopus and Turtle classes braved the intense heat for a morning of treasure hunting.

We trotted off to the Old Town where each team was given a list of clues—some straightforward and some fiendishly devious! Once these were solved successfully, the final clue was released to locate the hidden treasure.

Congratulations go to the winning team of Jay Jay and Arm.

It was a great morning and the children were very well behaved whilst in the public eye. Thank you to all the parents and staff for their help.

LATEST AWARD WINNERS

SUPERSTARS

Friday 31st March

Turtle Class

Lalita for great story writing.

Octopus Class

Aim for some super maths.

Patty for great maths.

Starfish Class

Eli for great behaviour.

Little Fish Class

Pinkeaw for good improvement.

SUPERSTARS

Friday 7th April

Turtle Class

Amin for always working hard in Thai lessons.

Octopus Class

Maisy for much improved concentration.

Omsin for wonderful writing.

Starfish Class

Hugo for superb leadership.

Little Fish Class

Sanya for great behaviour.

MARVELLOUS MATHEMATICIANS

Blast Off certificate winners are:

Turtle Class : Jay Jay, Lalita, Alex, Louis, Ali.

Octopus Class : Arm, Aim, Maisy, T.J.

and finally ...

I'm off to buy a water pistol. We wish you and your families a wonderful Songkran.

Global Village School

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find "filler"

articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So,

Caption describing picture or graphic.

"To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here."

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

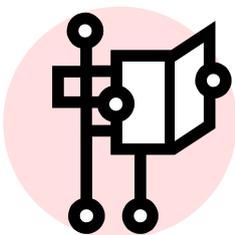

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find “filler”

articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So,

Caption describing picture or graphic.

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

“To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here.”

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

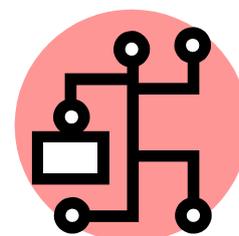

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

---

Organization

Business Name

Primary Business Address
Your Address Line 2
Your Address Line 3
Your Address Line 4

Phone: 555-555-5555
Fax: 555-555-5555
E-mail: someone@example.com

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Your business tag line here.

BACK PAGE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

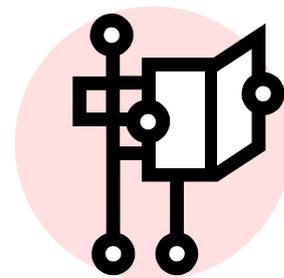

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.

Caption describing picture or graphic.