

Global Village School Newsletter

Issue Number 4

Friday 5th May

IT'S A MAD, MAD WORLD

On Thursday afternoon, the children of GVS donned their hats and enjoyed a wonderful tea party, together with many parents.

To celebrate the end of their topic on 'Alice in Wonderland' and Starfish class's work on tea parties, Octopus class organized a Mad Hatter's Tea Party for all the children in the school. They had spent time writing invitations and designing menus. They also constructed and decorated their own top hats.

They planned the food and spent the morning making over one hundred sandwiches and folding serviettes!! Never before have so many small hands been washed so many times!

As well as different sandwiches, there were biscuits, crisps, cakes (courtesy of Turtle class), fruit, and jelly, which no tea party should ever go without! Not forgetting, of course, endless supplies of tea!

The children from Starfish class also spent time making their own party hats, which looked fabulous. Lots of sparkles and glitter of course!! Turtle class also came with hats and some of them even dressed up as characters from the story and they looked magnificent. Even many of the parents brought their own hats along. A truly great effort all round. Lastly, but definitely not least, a big thank you to all the parents who came along and joined in the fun in our community. The children really enjoyed having you there.

LATEST AWARD WINNERS

WATCH THIS SPACE

We are sorry but there are no awards this week as it was only a three day week. But, they will return here in the next newsletter.

Important Dates

Wednesday 10th May

School closed—Public Holiday

HEAD LICE UPDATE

Following recent cases of head lice, here are some treatment guidelines.

Treat the whole household with lice shampoo. Use a nit comb, cleaning it with alcohol between people. Spray all bedding with alcohol spray and wash.

Repeat after a few days if needed. The shampoo only works on lice (not nits) and should only be repeatedly used if infected. If often infected, refer to a doctor. Lice have a 3 week life cycle so check regularly.

Nits can be treated with a 10 minute vinegar soak in adults and older children, but this will not kill lice so vinegar should not be used with other treatments. Babies under 18 months and pregnant women should not use the shampoo. Instead condition hair daily and use nit comb for about 10 days.

PLANNING MEETING

A reminder that the staff are planning for the whole of next year on 10th May. If you have any suggestions you would like us to take into account, please let Gerry know before Wednesday.

and finally ...

looks like a long night ahead. Staying up late to watch the mighty West Ham beat Spurs. Sorry Louis!

Global Village School

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find "filler" articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So,

Caption describing picture or graphic.

"To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here."

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

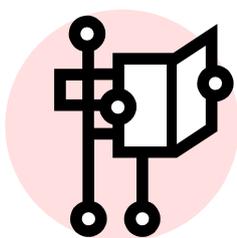

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find “filler”

articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So,

Caption describing picture or graphic.

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

“To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here.”

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

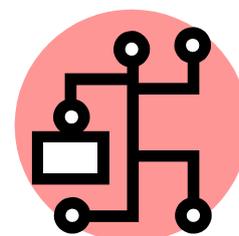

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

Organization

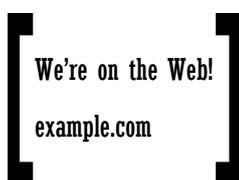

Business Name

Primary Business Address
Your Address Line 2
Your Address Line 3
Your Address Line 4

Phone: 555-555-5555
Fax: 555-555-5555
E-mail: someone@example.com

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Your business tag line here.

BACK PAGE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

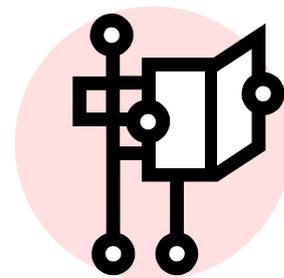

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.

Caption describing picture or graphic.